

The Daily Astorian.

WEDNESDAY.....MAY 24, 1876.

Splendid assortment wall paper and window blinds just received at Case's.

Births, marriages and deaths will be inserted free of charge to subscribers to either the DAILY or the WEEKLY ASTORIAN. Births or marriages, when sent in by persons who are not subscribers to the paper, should be accompanied with one dollar, which will be placed to the credit of the party and the paper will be sent to the address for the full amount so paid to us.

Put Smith, a noted stock man, who has invested largely in blooded sheep arrived in Oregon again recently and will make arrangements for distributing here among sheep owners, of a lot of thoroughbred merino bucks. He will arrive at Astoria with several head of young bucks about the first of June. See advertisement.

ADVERTISE—An exchange says: Maybe you think that people don't like to read advertisements! If you do you are much mistaken. Fresh, well-put well-placed advertisements are news! They are welcomed, read—nay, studied! The newspaper that is alive with them is increasingly acceptable and so is the business house that knows how to get them up, possessed withal with the sagacity and nerve to keep them up.

WARNING TO DELINQUENT SUBSCRIBERS.—A Russian paper announces that a belief in the approaching end of the world has seized on the Cossacks of the Don. Many, especially aged people, are giving up worldly affairs, wearing a shroud, and ordering their coffins. On every road are men repairing to Moscow to be consecrated priests, in order that the smallest village may have its own priest and church. The Russian paper fails to state whether its delinquent subscribers have taken the scare and paid up. That to our mind would be stronger evidence of the approach of the Millennium than any thing that a superstitious Cossack could advance.

DON'T READ ADVERTISEMENTS.—Occasionally a business man is encountered who professes to believe that "people don't read advertisements any how!" A greater mistake is seldom made. If a typographical error creeps into an ad, it soon becomes the talk of the neighborhood, and if the people do not read ads, how do they drop on errors with such facility? The other day the advertisement of the Centennial Restaurant appeared, in which the word "eating" was set up "fating," whereupon we were duly notified of the error by seven Salinasites and one Chinaman, and lastly, the Monterey Herald felt in duty bound to notify us also.—Daily Recorder, Salinas City, California.

TAKE YOUR LOCAL PAPER.—A man in Marion county last week saved $150 by taking his local paper, the Mercury, and there is a man in this county, near Brownsville, who told us, a short time ago, that he had made an 80-acre tract of land by being a reader of the Democrat. He had been wanting for a long time to buy an 80, adjoining his farm, but could get no track of the owner, who was a non-resident of the State, and finally saw it advertised for sale in the Democrat. He attended the sale and bought it for a nominal sum, and is now the owner of it.—Astoria Democrat.

"IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE."—This is true in every department of business, and no one appreciates its truth more fully than S. H. Thompson. Some time since he received the Agency, for this county, of the Cunningham "Garden City Clipper Plot," and immediately advertised the same in our paper. Green B. Smith, Esq., a patron of the Gazette, saw the advertisement and forthwith rushed to Thompson's and purchased four of these celebrated plows—which at once have sprung into popular favor. No matter how good and valuable an article may be, a merchant or dealer may keep it upon his shelves, or in his store for months, or even years, and but few will know anything of its good qualities, unless he advertises. For years Mr. Thompson carried on business here, and spent but little for advertising. Within the past two years his business has increased nearly double, and he attributes it to judicious advertising. If you want to thrive in business, ADVERTISE.—Corvallis Gazette.

Drifts and Tow Heads 1876.

Upper Astoria, Clatsop county, Oregon. }
April 24, 1876. }
At a Special meeting of the Columbia River Fishermen's Beneficial Aid Society, the following regulations for the government of all concerned were adopted. That the following drifts and tow heads be established for the fishing season of 1876.
First Drift. From Woody Island to Brown's point.
Second Drift. From Brown's Point inside of Snag Island to the 12th red buoy.
Third Drift. From the 15th buoy to Tongue Point.
Fourth Drift. From Tongue Point to a point a little west of Booth's Cannery, at a place to be designated by a spile or some permanent mark.
Fifth Drift. From the termination of the 4th drift to Smith's Point.
Sixth Drift. From Smith's Point to the Pacific Ocean.
Seventh Drift. From the red buoy in the Prairie channel to Tongue Point up or down.
Eighth Drift. The big snag in Chinook shoot will be considered a tow head.
The fishermen in Astoria, in council have mutually agreed to bind themselves to be governed by the foregoing drifts, and it is expected from boats outside of the Society that they will also conform to the same.
Any fisherman who is not fortunate enough to be a member of this Society has still another opportunity to join this Society, by applying before the 10th day of May, 1876, in accordance with the notice published elsewhere in the ASTORIAN. After which time the initiation fees will be raised to twenty-five dollars.
By order of the Society,
THOMAS DEALEY, Sec.
